Medicines & Healthcare products Regulatory Agency

MHRA participation across the programme and exhibition provides rare access to regulatory insight on product development, compliance and ongoing monitoring, supporting attendees in applying that understanding within their own organisations.

Clarity, insight and connection

9 theatres of FREE presentations, workshops and panels

Hear direct from leading authorities on GxP, compliance, innovation and sustainability across product development, manufacturing and distribution.

NEW Theatre

Ingredients

Dedicated to the science, supply, innovation and regulatory considerations relating to APIs, raw materials and ingredients for both pharmaceutical and nutraceutical products.

NEW Theatre

Nutraceuticals

Featuring presentations from leading sector organisations covering food supplement GMP, supplement labelling regulations, nutraceutical science, and packing and packaging of supplements.

NEW Theatre

GMP

Covering all things GMP-related; everything you want to know about GMP in the same theatre at the exhibition, delivered by experts with first-hand industry experience.

Over 70 hours of content to choose from

Featuring presentations from...

WORKSHOP | NETWORKING BREAKFAST

Register your event place to get all the updates as they are announced!

In association with:

Expertise across the journey from ingredients to authorised application

- Build confidence in ingredient quality, qualification and control across pharmaceutical and nutraceutical applications
- Strengthen understanding of regulatory expectations and best practice
- Explore how innovation and digitalisation can be applied responsibly
- Engage directly with regulators, industry bodies and specialists
- Share experience with peers facing similar operational demands
